

Press Contact:
Glori Gayster
GDG Consulting, Inc.
609 560 6392 (cell)

National Integrity Title Agency Promotes Natalie Madanick to Vice President Commercial Business Development

Marlton, NJ — October 6, 2025 — National Integrity Title Agency (NITA), a full-service title insurance and settlement agency serving the commercial and residential real estate markets, proudly announces the promotion of Natalie Madanick to Vice President Commercial Business Development. Since joining NITA, Madanick has played a pivotal role in driving new business opportunities, strengthening client relationships and advancing the company's mission to deliver exceptional service. In her expanded leadership role, Madanick will be responsible for furthering and building new key partnerships that focus on the unique needs of clients in the commercial real estate market, including attorneys, lenders, developers and brokers.

Madanick is deeply engaged in the region's business and real estate community. She is co-chair of the "Everything Real Estate Group" at the Pyramid Club, Board Member of the Voorhees Business Association and most recently co-founded the Tier One Network. Recognized as a connector throughout the community, Madanick serves on the Strategic Expansion Committee for NAIOP Greater Philadelphia and was co-chair of the Real Estate Professional Networking with the Jewish Federation of Southern NJ. She is also a strategic partner with the Camden County Bar Association, underscoring her commitment to fostering professional collaboration and supporting local growth.

"Natalie's drive and ability to connect people have had a direct and lasting impact on our success," said George E. Duffield, Sr., co-owner and CEO of National Integrity Title Agency. "Her energy is unmatched, and her relationships across the real estate and business communities will continue to open doors and strengthen NITA's presence."

Reflecting on her promotion, Madanick shared, "At NITA, we work like family — everyone is passionate about supporting clients and each other. I'm excited to continue building on the relationships we've established while looking ahead to new opportunities for growth."

Founded in 1992 as Integrity Title Agency, National Integrity Title Agency is a privately-owned title insurance agency serving the commercial and residential real estate community throughout the Delaware Valley.

The company was acquired in 2015 by Fran Turchi and George E. Duffield, Sr. and has grown to more than 40 team members. NITA offers a full range of title and settlement related services to realtors, lenders, attorneys, builders, borrowers and buyers as well as complex search and exam assistance. For the real estate industry, the company provides assistance with agent resources and access to marketing solutions. National Integrity Title Agency's corporate office is located at 1 Holtec Drive, Suite 102, Marlton, New Jersey 08053 and the agency has satellite offices in South Jersey, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Palm Beach Gardens, Florida. For more information, visit MyIntegrityTitle.com or call (866) 994-9980.

###